

Czech Nation Suffers Under Russian Rule

Control Of Churches Fought By Bishops

Prague, Oct. 21 (AP)—Czechoslovakia's Roman Catholic bishops declared today the communist government had turned the country into a "suffering nation."

The bishops called upon Catholic priests to share the suffering of these "hardest times." Particularly, the church leaders said, priests should reject the wage increases offered to the clergy under the government's new laws controlling the church.

Government wage hikes should be rejected, the bishops said in a secretly-circulated letter, especially "at this time when tens of thousands of our believers and other citizens are abducted from their homes and hundreds of thousands suffer in prisons and labor camps."

The bishops delivered the message to the nation's 7,000 priests through the clandestine courier system set up after the suppression of the Catholic press. The church and the government have acknowledged that some priests and laymen have been jailed for participating in this underground communication channel.

The bishops bitterly condemned two laws for control of the churches enacted last Friday by the communist-controlled Czechoslovak parliament. The bishops said these laws aimed at the "total subjugation" of the churches and the "liquidation" of the dominant Roman Catholic church.

These laws provide:

- 1.—Clergy of all churches become civil servants paid by the state. All church appointments, financial and administrative affairs closed under state control.

- 2.—The establishment of a new cabinet ministry empowered to rule on church matters.

The law on state support for churches offers salary increases to the clergy, which has been a big government talking point. However, it also requires that in order to get his pay a clergyman must swear allegiance to the communist-controlled "Peoples Democratic government."

Air Arm Loses High Command

Joint Chiefs To Run Future Bombing

By LITTON C. FAY
Washington, Oct. 21 (AP)—Strategic bombing in any future war apparently will come under direct control of the military high command, whether it's done by air force or navy planes.

This was indicated today by the air force in answering questions about a new and unprecedented setup under which direction of the strategic air command is removed from the air arm and placed in the hands of the joint chiefs of staff.

Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, air force chief of staff, referred briefly to the new arrangement during his testimony before the House Armed Services committee Wednesday. The strategic air command, said Vandenberg, now "is a major command of the joint chiefs of staff" and "receives its directives from the joint chiefs, not from the air force." He added that "its targets and target systems are selected by the joint chiefs as part of national war plans."

A reporter later asked air force officials whether that applied to navy carrier planes.

In answering the air force first called attention to Vandenberg's testimony that "the industrial heart of the potential enemy lies, not on any sea shore, not on any island, but deep inside the Eurasian land mass. It is that type of war that we must adapt all our forces, including carrier aviation."

Sabotage Menace In America Calls For Minute Men

By EDWARD O. ETHELL

Denver, Oct. 21 (AP)—A modern organization of minute men to meet threats of Communist sabotage was proposed today. It was termed the key to adequate security.

The plan was offered by C. B. Lister of Washington, executive director of the National Rifle association. Lister helped draft the first manual on home guard organization in World War II. He asked his board of directors to help establish a new internal security force of civilians in their states "while there is time."

"Russia could cripple this nation in 12 hours without ever using an atom bomb," Lister declared in an interview elaborating on his plan.

"A lot of talk—and very little action—on civilian defense plans, centering mostly on disaster relief, has betrayed the average American into a sense of security. But the Communists could attack without warning. They could do it through their cells scattered over the United States. Even if the FBI has spotted every cell and every Communist, they could effectively sabotage our power and communication systems, our water supply and transportation net, and our vital industrial plants. They could do it before wholesale arrests could be made.

"While our top military men are wrangling over long range strategy, they are overlooking their own back yard. They are neglecting to provide protection for the base to put their strategy into action and keep it in action."

Lister said, "that protection—much as the military thinker may hate to admit it—can be provided by civilians without cost. Those civilians want to protect their home, their jobs and their way of life. All they need is a little direction."

His plan provides simply for matching each Communist cell with a cell—or two cells—of minute men.

These would be organized in every community and every strategic industrial plant. They would be voluntary. Their assignments would be to guard familiar objects: the highway bridge at the edge of town; the dam backing up the reservoir that provides water for their farmlands; the local power station; the big transformer at the factory; the telephone switchboards.

"Nobody would have to move any further than he might go on a Sunday picnic—most no more than a few blocks from home," Lister pointed out. "Most would never see any sort of action—but the few squads that did would keep the nation alive instead of letting it be paralyzed."

Formal organization would be at a minimum, within each state through adjutant generals, then sheriffs and designated sector commanders. In an emergency—a Pearl Harbor at home—minute men could be alerted in a matter of minutes. They would join friend to rush to key spots.

Control by the military would be small. So would police control. "After all, they have their emergency, M-day assignments," Lister said. "Even the National Guard, our old militia, is organized to become a federal force in event of national emergency. We have no home guard."

His plan, Lister said, "is nothing radical. It's kept Switzerland a free republic for more than 600 years. It won't cost our independence. What we need is some concrete plan to put it into effect. Objections that it could lead to military dictatorship is asinine. An armed, alert citizenry is the best guarantee against just that."

Upkeep Costs On U. S. Senators Jump For 1950

Bill For All 96 Now Around $5,000,000

By DON WHITEHEAD

Washington, Oct. 21 (AP)—The 1950-model United States senator is going to cost the American taxpayer $50,905 a year—and up.

That's the package cost in salaries and expenses for a single senator and his office staff. The bill for all 96 of them will run around $5,000,000 a year.

The cost per senator went up about $3,000 a year this week when congress voted the money to permit senators to increase the pay of their office help or add another worker to their staff.

One midwestern senator put the blame on the taxpayer for the high senatorial costs. He didn't want his name used. "I'm snowed under with mail," Senator X said. "We get about 1,000 letters a day in my office. That means five or six stenographers and clerks do nothing but handle the mail. I never see most of it. I can't. Because if I tried to answer each letter personally—I'd be doing nothing but dictating all day."

Expenses Tax Free
A senator's pay is $12,500 a year. It's generally agreed the salary is modest enough. A top-ranking ambassador receives $25,000 a year plus expenses.

But the senatorial salary is only the down payment. The real cost is in the fine print. Take the case of Senator X.

In addition to his salary, he gets another $2,500 a year for expenses. This expense money is tax free. He need make no accounting of how he spends it.

The senator comes from a state with a population of less than 3,000,000. That means he can draw $35,400 a year for his office help. Each senator is entitled to at least six office workers, and $8,400-a-year administrative assistant, and an additional $6,720-a-year aide.

Their salaries all come out of the $35,400 for office help. If Senator X goes over this amount, then he must pay the difference out of his own pocket. And some senators say they lose money on this.

In addition to salary, expense money, free office rent, and office help, Senator X gets $105 worth of free stamps each year. This is outside his free mail privilege.

He also gets $400 a year for stationery. He can have 250 minutes of long distance telephone calls for free—or 50 calls. And he receives a payment of 20 cents a mile for travel pay at each session of congress—the amount based on the distance from Washington to his home town.

Assistants Get Slice
If Senator X's state ever grows above the 3,000,000 population

French Premier Wins Approval

Unfreezing Of Wages On Mayer Program

Paris, Oct. 21 (AP)—France's new Premier Rene Mayer favors an unfreezing of wages and a quick return to collective bargaining in industry.

Mayer outlined his domestic policies a short time before the national assembly approved him for the premiership last night by a vote of 341 to 183. Mayer is a member of the radical Socialist party, which despite its name favors a conservative policy.

Mayer won confirmation with 31 ballots to spare. He had to receive a minimum count of 310 or bow out of the picture. Now he faces the task of organizing a cabinet to handle France's complex out of the recent devaluation of the franc.

As part of his domestic program Mayer backed a proposal for a monthly bonus of up to 3,000 francs ($8.50) for wage earners in the low brackets. He also came out for legislation restoring the prewar practice of collective bargaining. Since the war, the state has had a powerful hand in determining wage scales to curb inflation.

On foreign policy Mayer proposed that France adopt an attitude of cautious friendship toward Germany.

Coal Mine Owners Walk Out On Pay Talks With Union

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Oct. 21 (AP)—Northern and Western coal operators today walked out on contract talks with the United Mine Workers.

The operators issued a statement saying: "In his mad race for power, John L. Lewis is impoverishing our employees and is willing to destroy the coal industry—therefore we are leaving this conference."

"When the union leaders show some disposition to consider our employees and the industry, on which we all depend, we will meet with them again, at a mutually satisfactory place and time."

The operators sat in today's negotiating session for about 45 minutes. Then they left the room and George Love, their spokesman, handed reporters the type-written statement.

They had no other comment.

Fainthearted Detroit Jewel Thieves Drop $100,000 In Loot

Detroit, Oct. 21 (AP)—Police searched today for a pair of fainthearted robbers. The two abandoned $100,000 worth of diamonds yesterday after getting the gems at gunpoint in a jewelry store holdup.

They staged the daylight robbery at the Philmore jewelers, in northeast Detroit, and locked three men in the store vault.

Then, fleeing across a parking lot, they dropped two cases of diamonds, keeping only a wedding set valued at $125.

Red Drive Toward Kweilin Stopped By Chinese Army

Chungking, Oct. 21 (AP)—Government troops fighting for the fate of southwest China have halted a Communist drive towards Kweilin, the defense ministry said today.

At the same time, Nationalist sources said they had detected a movement of 100,000 Reds in preparation for an invasion of Szechwan.

Communist and Nationalist artillery cracked at each other in the battle for Chu Shan island, government air and naval blockade base 100 miles south of Red Shanghai.

The China National Aviation Corp. announced in Hong Kong that it was withdrawing from Kweilin, Kwangsi capital 250 miles northwest of Canton and from Wuchow (Tsungwu) on the Kwangsi border.

Kweilin is headquarters for Gen. Pai Chung-Hsi's 200,000 many army—the strongest left to the Nationalists on the mainland.

No mention was made of a second Communist thrust which Hong Kong reports said had reached 160 miles southeast of Kweilin.

Proposals To Slash Spending Balance Tax Increase Talk

By FRANCIS M. LE MAY

Washington, Oct. 21 (AP)—Capitol Hill fired back at President Truman's talk of a tax increase today with counter proposals to slash government spending instead.

Another popular suggestion on how to make the government's ends meet was:

By tax adjustments and other incentives, encourage a billowing industrial and business economy with sights set on a $300,000,000 national income. That, it is figured, would yield adequate revenue—without hikes in tax rates—to support federal, state and local governments. National income now is at the rate of about $217,000,000,000.

House Republican Leader Martin, of Massachusetts, issued a statement saying the President wants more taxes to put "his socialist schemes over on the American people."

"The American economy," he declared, "is so shaky now that an increase in the tax burden might easily lead to a depression with millions out of jobs."

Mr. Truman disclosed his 1950 tax objective at his news conference yesterday, despite (a) that congress has ignored his call last January for a $400,000,000 tax increase, and (b) 1950 is election year. All house members and one-third of the Senate will be out asking votes then from taxpayers.

Mr. Truman told the newsmen that if anybody could tell him any way without tax increases, to meet an estimated $5,000,000,000 federal deficit in the current fiscal year, then he'd like to be told.

Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the Senate Finance committee came up immediately with his counter proposal:

"I think the way to meet our deficit is: 1. To reduce spending and 2. Readjust our taxes so as to encourage greater production and inspire greater activity in all lines."

"I do not see how the National income can be increased by adding to the burden of taxes at this time. Some taxes should be repealed and adjustments made wherever a careful study may indicate a readjustment of the tax burden is needed. In such a readjustment some taxes may be increased."

Soldier's Wife Held As Killer

Tragedy Follows Gay Party In Germany

Frankfurt, Germany, Oct. 21 (AP)—A pretty American brunette, dazed with shock, was arraigned in a U. S. court today on a charge of murdering her young Air Force lieutenant husband after a quarrel with a woman friend.

Mrs. Yvette Madsen, 22, mother of two small children, is accused of shooting her 26-year-old husband, Lt. Andrew W. Madsen, of Oakland, Calif., through the heart early yesterday in the living room of their home near the Rhine-Main airbase. The Air Force said the shooting followed a gay party at the home of friends.

Judge T. T. Marve adjourned the preliminary hearing until Monday to give Mrs. Madsen's daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Noack of Brooklyn, N. Y., time to select counsel. Frankfurt District Attorney Fred Johnson said he would place a first degree murder charge against her.

Mrs. Madsen was brought to the courtroom from a hospital where she had been under treatment for shock.

The arrest warrant charged Mrs. Madsen under the German penal code.

Madsen was killed by a bullet from a .45-caliber army pistol as he returned from the party.

Mrs. Madsen joined her husband in Germany at Christmas 1947. Their two children, four-year-old son named Dana and a daughter, Nancy, 11 months old, were in the temporary care of other Air Force officers.

Upper Peninsula trappers can begin work on Nov. 1, at noon, in taking muskrat, mink, and raccoon, badger and skunk. Last year the trapping season opened one minute after midnight, but this year the opening hour is not until 12 o'clock noon.

The trapping season on mink, muskrat and raccoon is from Nov. 1 to Nov. 30. Coyote, fox, wolf, lynx, bobcat and opossum may be taken at any time.

The season on beaver and otter is subject to regulation by the conservation commission, and if an open season is declared it will not occur until late winter or early spring.

Badger and skunk may be taken from Nov. 1 to Jan. 31. All dates on open season for trapping are inclusive.

Non-Residents Barred

A resident trapping license (except beaver and otter) costs $2.

Seniors Use Voting Machine

Device Utilized In Class Election

Seniors of the Escanaba high school are voting for class officers today, using a voting machine loaned by the City of Escanaba. The city in turn was loaned the machine by the Automatic Voting Machine company of Jamestown, N. Y., one of two concerns seeking to interest the city in the installation of voting machines for all city precincts.

The machine in which the seniors are voting today is a horizontal type, manually operated. The school election is the first in Escanaba in which a voting machine has been used to record and tabulate the results.

Under the system being used by the seniors, the four candidates receiving the highest number of votes will be elected president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, respectively.

The City of Escanaba is considering the purchase of 17 voting machines to equip each of the eight precincts with two machines, with one machine for a spare.

Non-residents may not take, hunt, or trap raccoons in Michigan; and they are barred from trapping in the state.

Each trap set must have attached a metal tag bearing the name and address of the trapper. Traps may not be set out the day before the season opens.

It is unlawful to use any kind of a trap other than a steel trap having a jaw spread not exceeding six inches for the purpose of taking any other wild animal except bear. The traps may not be set within six feet of a mink or muskrat house or hole, or within 50 feet of a beaver lodge, home, hole or dam.

Officer May Inspect

Residents, their minor children, and their employees, may hunt or trap on the enclosed lands on which they are regularly domiciled, without being required to have a license, except to hunt deer or to trap beaver or otter.

In trapping it is unlawful to use for bait the carcass of any protected game bird or animal. Carcasses of fur-bearing animals, lawfully taken, may be used.

The law requires that persons who are or have been trapping or hunting, or who are about to hunt or trap, must upon the demand of a conservation officer, present for inspection his guns, ammunition, traps, etc. This also permits the officer to inspect game, automobiles, boats, trailers, game bags, game coats, and so forth.

Upkeep Costs Run High On Senators

mark, he'll get more office help.

The size of his staff payroll depends on the size of his state.

A senator from a 3,000,000-5,000,000 size state gets $36,900 a year for his office expenses; the 5,000,000-10,000,000 size gets $42,420; and the 10,000,000 New York size state draws $43,920.

The new law increased Senator X's office pay pool by $11,520. This raised it from $23,900 to $35,420. But the increase isn't as big as it looks.

Now the senator must pay his administrative assistant out of the office salary pool. Heretofore, this assistant was paid separately by congress and the cost was not included in the office expenses.

Assuming Senator X pays his administrative assistant the basic $8,400 a year, then he will have $3,120 left over. He can use the money either to hire a new office worker, to increase office wages—or both.

It so happens Senator X pays his top aide $10,000 a year. So he'll

Voting Machine Bids Opened

But City Council Makes No Choice

Two bids from voting machine manufacturers were opened at the regular meeting of the city council last night and were referred to George Harvey, city clerk, for analysis.

In moving to withhold decisions on the bids, Councilman Nevin Reynolds included in his resolution that the bids be again considered and acted upon at the next regular meeting.

The Shoup Voting Machine corporation of Philadelphia bid to supply 17 electric voting machines, with nine party roll and 40 officer mechanism, for $1296 each, F.O.B. Canton, Ohio. Manually operated machines of the same type would be provided by the company for $1221 F. O. B. Canton. The Automatic Voting Machine company offered to furnish 17 electric voting machines to the city for $1290 each F.O.B. Jamestown, N. Y., or 17 manual voting machines at $1215, F.O.B. Jamestown.

Both companies included provisions for paying for the machines on a pay as you go plan. The Automatic company also permits cities to rent the machines for $100 yearly, and this amount can be applied on the machines. If the city should decide to purchase them.

Sometime ago the council decided to install voting machines in existing precincts in the city, and thus avoid creating additional voting precincts to alleviate crowded polls. In the 1949-50 budget the council appropriated $1500 to make the down payment on the machines. A survey of voting machines and conditions in Escanaba was made earlier by the city clerk and presented to the council.

The council desires to have the machines here for smaller elections so that voters will be well acquainted with the voting machines before the state election comes up. The Automatic Voting Machine company will make delivery by Dec. 15 if they are awarded the contract before Nov. 15, provided they are not adversely affected by strikes, etc. The Shoup company will make delivery by April.

Councilman Peter Logan objected to taking action on the bids, because "the people did not know this would be brought up tonight and we should have some expression from them if we are going to do this on a pay-as-you-go plan." Logan said he thought voting machines were all right, but that the city should wait until it can pay cash.

Both Councilmen Logan and Wickman questioned whether the council had authorized invitation for bids for the machines. They granted that inclusion of a budgetary appropriation had been made, but could not recall when the council had agreed to advertise for bids on the machines.

A. V. Aronson, city manager, told the council, in answer to the councilmen's question, that calling for bids does not entail any obligation, and that in past when money has been appropriated for certain purchases, he presents the bids to the council, and that it may then accept or reject any or all bids.

Councilman Reynolds pointed out that the machines will cut election labor costs and very nearly pay for themselves in 14 years, as well as eliminate spoiled ballots, recounts, etc.

County Road Aid Approved By Five Delta Townships

Acting on a recommendation of the Delta county board of supervisors in recent meeting, five township boards in Delta county have acted favorably toward appropriating funds to assist the Delta county road commission finance operations through the winter months.

The county board recommended to the townships that they appropriate $2.40 per capita from sales tax diversion funds for road purposes. This would aid the county road commission in total by $34,000.

Townships approving appropriations are Bark River, Brampton, Escanaba, Garden and Nahma. The other nine townships in the county are expected to take similar action soon.

The assistance of the townships, plus an offer of the county to permit the county road commission to borrow from county funds, will permit the road commission to carry on normal operations from November to May 1, when state sources of road revenue will be forthcoming.

Ruling Disturbs Bell Telephone

Lacy Says Opinion Will Be Studied

Detroit, Oct. 21 (AP)—The Michigan Bell Telephone Company withheld decision today whether to appeal a circuit court ruling that the company must give rebates to subscribers in 43 state telephone exchanges.

Thomas N. Lacy, Michigan Bell president, said the company wanted time to study the opinion handed down yesterday by Ingham County Circuit Judge Marvin J. Salma.

"Michigan Bell, however, is seriously disturbed by the unfavorable ruling," Lacy said.

Unless the company appeals to the state supreme court—it last resort—Judge Salmon's ruling ended a lower court fight that has dragged on for four years. The company originally was ordered by the Michigan Public Service Commission to reduce its rates by $3,500,000 a year in 1945.

Instead, the same rates were retained and the company went into court to protest the order.

Lacy declared: "The decision will mean that the company will have earned over the period of two years and nine months of the best business in the nation's history a return on its intrastate investment averaging appreciably less than 4 per cent and in 1947 and 1948, a return below 3 per cent. This is inadequate."

Such a return in "these good times" is inadequate to attract new capital needed for improvement of service, Lacy added.

He said the company "had confidence that it would be permitted to earn a reasonable return on its investment and has put more than $200,000,000 into new plant and equipment since V-J Day."

"This confidence has not been realized and the company has serious doubts as to its ability to continue its construction program at present levels," Lacy said.

Telephone officials said the rebates would vary among the different exchanges with Detroit due to $5,800,000.

The MPSC granted the company an increase in its intra-state rates last year.

The Escanaba city council, at a regular meeting last night, voted unanimously to grant $2 per capita to the county welfare fund, provided other governmental units of the county contribute a like sum.

The county welfare board had requested that the city make some statement of their sentiment on expedite the raising of the $50,000 voted in the welfare board budget. It was reported at the council meeting that welfare costs have increased 50 per cent.

Councilman Nevin Reynolds stated that through A. M. Gilbert, welfare administrator, the welfare unit had requested about $80,000, and that this was paid by the county board of supervisors. Reynolds pointed out that the present appropriation for welfare may not be sufficient in the coming year, and urged the council to go along on the welfare appropriation.

Councilman Logan raised the question as to whether a member of the city council should not be a member of the county welfare board, in as much as a large portion of their funds was contributed by the city. After discussion, the council agreed that if a city council member should be on the welfare board, it should be taken up when committees are appointed by the county board of supervisors.

The welfare contribution from the city of Escanaba will be met through an appropriation in next year's budget.

No objections were presented to the paving improvements in the Goulais addition, to the sanitary sewer improvement north of Ludington street between 25th and 27th streets, nor to the paving improvement between 13th and 14th streets on 11th avenue south.

A petition signed by 54 per cent of the property owners with property abutting the alley south of Ludington street between 10th and 11th streets was accepted by the council. The petition calls for paving of the alley in the city hall block. The city owns about 225 feet on this alley. Alley paving costs about $2.50 per foot. On motion of Logas with support by Quinn, the petition was referred to the city manager and the city engineer, for survey.

Fund-Raising In Detroit Watched

THE eyes of Michigan and, in fact, the entire United States are on Detroit this week as the United Foundation, the amalgamated community-wide fund raising drive, progresses in its campaign to raise $8,500,000. If the Detroit drive succeeds, it probably will accelerate a nationwide movement for a single, once-a-year fund raising campaign to accumulate money for the multiple health and welfare causes.

This year in Detroit, for the first time in any multiple fund raising campaign, the American Red Cross and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis are participating. The only reservations are that industrial contributions for the Red Cross and polio are to be made directly to these organizations, and that the two groups reserve the right to conduct separate campaigns later if they regard it as necessary.

The initial reports of the Detroit campaign are highly encouraging. The big industries are running considerably ahead of previous years. The payroll deduction plan is in effect in almost every plant and business house to encourage greater contributions by workers. The Ford company, for instance, will permit payroll deductions of as little as 15c a week for a period of 52 weeks for hourly workers and 35c semi-monthly over the year for salaried employees. As a result the average donation has jumped from $5.30 per employee to $10.40.

Payroll deduction, of course, is the only way that a federated campaign can succeed because the amount of money necessary to meet every need of every participating agency is so great that it is impractical to try to get it all from a single paycheck.

The United Foundation campaign in Detroit is the "pilot plant," so to speak, of federated giving. If it succeeds in Detroit, it will establish a pattern for national adoption.

The benefits are highly desirable. It will eliminate the nuisance of periodic collections for a multiplicity of worthy causes at the same time that it establishes a closer scrutiny of budgets for such health and welfare organizations.

International Trade Fair In Detroit

THE Upper Peninsula Development Bureau, at its annual meeting in Iron Mountain recently, adopted a resolution endorsing Detroit's plan to hold an international trade fair in 1950.

Detroit is a logical site for an international trade fair. It is the center of a vast manufacturing district which imports enormous quantities of materials, and exports a large volume of its manufactured products to world markets.

The international trade fair is a time tested method of providing the apparatus for bringing the maximum number of buyers from all over the world into direct contact with the largest number of sellers at the same time and in one place. It saves important amounts of travel money and travel hours.

New Orleans, a commercial rather than industrial city, has lately opened an International Trade Mart, now exhibiting 700 products from 32 states and 25 foreign countries. The presence of the mart is believed to account in a substantial measure for a five-fold increase in traffic through the port of New Orleans in the last seven years.

Detroit's character, in trade, is more nearly that of Leipzig which, along with being commercially minded, has been, as far back as history goes, a producer of a great variety of goods. These, before the war, included heavy machinery, iron castings, textiles, pianos, paper, precision tools, scientific instruments, furs and books. In several of these lines Leipzig has been the world's greatest center and has been a mecca of buyers on that account.

Industries in Escanaba and other cities of the Upper Peninsula are now showing more interest than usual in the possibilities that lie in foreign trade. An international trade fair, located in Detroit, would offer them a convenient opportunity for displaying their wares to buyers that would come from all parts of the world to an exposition of this kind.

An Apple Or Two A Day

MICHIGAN, New York, Oregon, Washington and other fruit-growing states are said to have the biggest crops of apples in many years.

The Wealthies, Alexanders and Duches varieties have had their day, and the McIntosh Reds, Snows, Greenings, Talman Sweets, Delicious, Northern Spies and other winter-keeping varieties are on the market in heaps. You can buy a bushel of toothsome pie, sauce or eating apples today for a dollar or a little more. It's reminiscent of the good old days when a bushel of red good apples cost 50 or 75 cents, basket back.

This may be a bad winter for the doctor.

tors. They say that an apple a day keeps the doctor away, and lots of folks will eat apples this season as they haven't done in years, to say nothing of apple pie, apple tarts, apple sauce and apple strudel.

Two or three apples a day, not forgetting one just before turning in, and half a dozen glasses of pure cold water every twenty-four hours, is a real recipe for good health, to say nothing of the joys of good eating—and drinking. A leading American clinic reports that more than half the patients who make the trip through it are dehydrated, that is to say, their tissues have been so deprived of water that they are sick, ill, stricken with disease in their weak spots, and feeling bad all over.

One good means of water intake is to eat apples, which are said to be 96 per cent fluid. But apples should be eaten for their own sake, for they are among the most palatable of all foods, and easy on the digestion. It is said that there are people here and there who cannot eat raw apples. There must be something seriously wrong with them, for no known variety of apple is gassy or ferment-forming unless it is over-ripe.

The apple bounty is manifesting this year wherever good apples grow. The Niagara Peninsula and British Columbia in Canada are reported to be bursting with apples, and many New England counties are harvesting a remarkably fine crop. It's a truism that apples are better than medicine for the sick and the well, and the present situation is just right for good health and good eating.

Dr. Nourse Issues Warning Of Danger

DR. EDWIN G. NOURSE, chairman of the council of economic advisers, one of the most important advisory positions in governmental service, has resigned his job, effective November 1. He did so a day following the delivery of an important address to the National Retail Farm Equipment association in which Dr. Nourse sounded a warning of danger in the government's big time spending spree.

In his talk to the farm equipment dealers, Dr. Nourse admonished farm, labor and other pressure groups against squeezing the national economy in their own selfish interests. He likewise criticized industrial management for a reluctance to cut prices. But his prime target was government extravagance and dangerous financial practices.

This is not the first time that Dr. Nourse has spoken out in opposition to the drift in governmental economies. At least twice previously he offered his resignation but on each occasion it was refused by Mr. Truman. This time Dr. Nourse was so blunt in his criticism that it was apparent he had reached the parting of the ways with the chief executive.

Dr. Nourse bemoaned the deficit spending of the government at a time when we are in the midst of a relatively high level of prosperity. Financial ruin is the only result to such a program and we are inviting that unless the nation's financial policies are abruptly reversed.

The policy of spend and spend, tax and tax, elect and elect to which the New Deal was dedicated and which the so-called Fair Deal has continued is leading to national disaster. We can only hope that the nation will wake up to the pleadings of such men as Dr. Nourse and restore a semblance of sanity to federal government.

'SLOTS' IN MICHIGAN

(Marinette Eagle-Star)

Slot machines may be on the way out in Michigan, due to the declaration by the governor that they will not be tolerated, plus the announcement of the liquid control commission that possession of the one-armed bandits is prima facie evidence of guilt. But Michigan has a clean-up job still on its hands.

The bureau of internal revenue at Detroit has issued special tax stamps to owners of 48 establishments in the state still operating slot machines. The stamps cost $100 each, but the federal government carefully stamps on its printed form: "This is a tax receipt, not a license to operate in violation of state or local laws."

Michigan law, though not as stringent as the Timor anti-gambling law of Wisconsin, prohibits the operation of slot machines. A year ago, 118 establishments bought stamps for their slot machines. The present 48 is a decrease of 70.

If the state police want to clean up the remaining 48, all they have to do is get the list of owners of slot machines from the bureau of internal revenue. Detroit sources are now chiding the state police and the state police may be expected to swing into action. But the one-armed bandits will not be thoroughly cleaned out of Michigan until the state authorities demand complete, not occasional enforcement of the law.

Hollywood: You Americans say some rather odd things. For example, you speak of living ON such and such a street. In Britain we always live IN the street, not on it. — C. St. J.

A. In American usage "in the street" means in the paved roadway for vehicular traffic. One may walk in the street; children may play in the street; a drunken man may lie in the street. But one never lives in the street. One lives on a street. That is to say, one's house is on either side of the two rows of lots that face the street.

Women Urged To Use Ballot

BY DOUGLAS LARSEN

Washington, (NEA) — Today's professional fighters for the rights of women have a far more modest goal than the vision of political equality with men, which inspired the early suffragette leaders to their noble efforts.

The great political purge, the great revitalizing of the whole American governmental process which giving the vote to women was supposed to produce, never materialized. It has turned out that women really don't give much of a hoot about voting. If they do get around to it, it's usually at their husband's urging. And when they scan the ballot, if they don't see the name of a man whom they think to be "cute," chances are they'll follow their husband's advice on the matter.

The great social and economic liberation which political freedom was supposed to produce for the gals has been the other way around. What little political influence they exert today has largely been won through the social and economic liberation they got at first. And those freedoms have been won more by such crusaders as Max Factor and Hattie Carnegie than by the professional women's rights fighters.

In short, the women who bother to worry about it are now ready to admit that politics is a man's game—Perle Masto, Ginger Rogers' mother and Bogey's Baby notwithstanding. It will be recalled that the latter two women figured rather inconspicuously in the congressional Hollywood Commie probe a couple of years ago.

EXCEPTIONS ARE RARE

The exceptions such as Margaret Chase Smith and Helen Gahagan Douglas have been too rare over the years to prove anything except their rarity.

Proof of all of this can be found in the big new program of the League of Women Voters which has just been launched here. A spokesman for the league calls it, "the most ambitious drive this organization has ever undertaken." The official announcement explains it as "a series of eleven regional conferences to train leaders of the league in ways to arouse women voters to accept party responsibility."

Miss Anna Lord Strauss, national president of the league, sounds the following keynote:

"The connecting link between you and your government officials is the political party. High government officials will make the final decisions on problems of peace and prosperity, but it is the political party that determines who these officials shall be. You can take an active part in the political party if you wish. 'Politics is everybody's business.'"

Compared to the fighting talk of such old-time leaders of women as Susan B. Anthony, Miss Strauss's keynote is pretty mild. It would certainly be a shock to Susan B. Anthony to discover that 100 years later, her valiant and successful fight to get women the vote had degenerated into a fight to get them to use it.

SHOW 'EM THE WAY

The big excuse that the league gives today for women failing to take a significant place in U. S. politics is that it's just too tough for them to get started in the game. This drive, apparently, is to cure that by showing them how to get started.

A pamphlet called "What's the U. S. to You—a Quiz," is to be the Bible and guide of the league's drive. The publication is unique in that none of the questions which are asked in it are answered. The questions are supposed to be so challenging to the female mind that they send the reader off in hot chase for the answers. Then when she finds the answers she'll be all fired up to get into politics.

A league spokesman explains the interesting reason for a pamphlet in this unusual form. For six years the league staff tried to get one out which was to be called "Know Your Party." They finally discovered that there wasn't enough difference between the principles of the national Democratic and Republican organizations to fill even a small pamphlet. Then they discovered that there were too many differences among the state organizations of the same party for even a large pamphlet to try to explain. So they put all of the unanswered questions which they had been collecting over a period of six years and made a pamphlet out of them instead.

By flooding the country with the league's new quiz publication and with the 11 regional conferences Miss Strauss hopes that by the 1950 election "all women will be active workers in the party of their choice."

How Firm a Foundation

Good Evening

By Clint Dunathan

THE FOOLS—It has been said that a rumor is started by a fool and is spread by the foolish.

Like all "sayings" it is true only in part. For sometimes those who are best known for their ability to purvey malicious gossip are not fools. They know what they are doing and they delight in doing it.

To tear others down in reputation, to whisper baseless accusations about their neighbors, is for some people an enjoyable pastime.

The fool is too easily found out and confounded. The professional rumor-monger and back-fence gossip can get by for years. Often they do it with a sly insinuation, an innuendo accompanied by the lift of an eyebrow. And sometimes they do it with a smile.

THE VICTIMS—Occasionally we are approached by persons who are the victims of gossip. They want us to write something about the harm that gossip does—because they are experiencing the effects of the gossip's poison.

And not once have these victims expressed concern for themselves. They are furious over the agony it is causing the members of their family. The single person, the man or woman without a family, is not so easily touched by the gossips. They are not altogether immune, but they are less vulnerable. Those who suffer most from cruel gossip are those who are most innocent—the children, wife, or the husband, of the victim.

THE ENVOIUS—The professional gossip is usually envious of others.

If others have wealth, the gossip asserts that it is ill-gotten; if they have a happy family, the gossip says you should hear them fight when the doors are shut; if the couple is devoted, the gossip asks slyly if you knew that he wasn't home at all last weekend; if the daughter or son is polite and well-behaved the gossip will say that the son or daughter "was seen coming home real late."

Back of it all is the wish for wealth, for happiness, for love, and for children in whom they can take pride.

AND THE IDLE—While rumors are started by the envious and those with malicious motives, they are often repeated by the idle gossips have had nothing more interesting to do than to talk about others.

Perhaps you may wonder how people can unquestioningly repeat the untruths that come to them through the gossip grapevine. The reason is that the gossips like to be startling. They want to attract attention to themselves by reporting some choice bit of scandal, they think it hot, fresh and juicy. Therefore they will go to almost any extreme to pick up and repeat the gossip they hear.

Gossip is an occupation for the idle, entertainment for the unthinking, and in some circles has completely replaced the art of conversation.

WITHOUT DEFENSE—The victim of the gossips is without defense, except in silence.

To confront the known gossips with the accusation that they are purveyors of lies will bring only a quick and emphatic denial. They may have heard the scandalous

INTO THE PAST

Ten Years Ago

Escanaba—J. H. Lahaie, time-keeper of the Peninsula division of the Chicago and North Western railway here for several years, yesterday was informed that he, along with members of the division accounting office, is to be transferred to Chicago on Monday.

Gladstone—Mrs. Melvina Wilhelm returned Thursday from Bay City, Mich., where she has been visiting for the past several weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dorwin Berthiaume, the former Ruth Wilhelm.

Manistique—Mr. and Mrs. William McGlynn will leave today for Green Bay where they will attend the Packer-Detroit Lion's game on Sunday.

Munising—Orson Livermore, Carl Davis and Edward Perry have been accepted for the United States Army and are members of the Second Infantry stationed at Fort Brady.

Twenty Years Ago

Escanaba—J. C. Stump, master mechanic on the Peninsula division of the Chicago and North Western railway, has been promoted to the position of assistant superintendent of motive power with offices in Chicago, it was announced yesterday.

Gladstone—A pretty October wedding took place Saturday morning when Miss Anna Gaus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gaus of Kipling, became the bride of Fred Brassick, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Brassick of this city.

Manistique—A large delegation of Escanaba lodge, Knights of Pythias, will come to Manistique Tuesday evening to confer the rank of page on a class of local candidates.

It's the most dangerous gun there is—Confederate veteran Thomas A. Riddle, 103, on the atom bomb.

The U. S. is not to blame for the present state of affairs and neither is Britain. Don't let us blame each other. Let us join forces to solve them.—British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin.

I make few speeches because during recent months, it seems that everything I say is held against me.—Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan.

story, they will admit, but they have never repeated it. They will join with you in decrying the habit of gossip—and as soon as your back is turned they will repeat what you have said with a few inventions of their own. Your open indignation will only provide more material for the gossips to work with.

THE BIGGER LIE—Professional gossips have found that people give more credence to a large and complete lie than they do to a little fib.

If they whisper that a man was not at home last weekend it may pass without attention. But if they say that the man was not at home because he was spending the weekend with a blond and his wife is about to sue for divorce it will set idle tongues wagging all over town.

The best way to confound the gossip is to ask where he received his information.

The answer always comes back: I heard it from someone else.

And you can observe that repeating what others say, without knowing its truth, is gossiping. A woman we know completely spoiled a gathering of people by questioning the source of every scandalous story. There was a chilly silence until she left—and then talked about her!

About Night Football

Dear Editor:

I feel that the Mother who wrote about night football recently is right. Why should parents vote on a question that has not been discussed pro and con. We have heard the arguments in favor of night football, but there must be some good arguments against it, or why would the school board be holding out against it as they have?

I graduated from a college that was the second school in the country to have night football equipment, back in 1930. At first almost every game was played at night. But it didn't take many years until most of the fans, including the players, preferred a day game. Both vision and weather is better at day games. Or, why is it that your large Universities prefer to have the games played in the day time?

Escanaba is particularly favored in having the day games. We are not competing with a college for favored afternoon time, and our city is big enough to get out a good crowd in the day time.

Wonder if gate receipts is the main argument in favor of night football? Or even if it should be? It seems to me it is rather an older group of people who want entertainment. Stores are open Friday night and the next move will be to play games on Saturday night, disrupting the schedule of the home and community for that weekend. It's already happened in many places and from there to Sunday afternoon.

It's more important to have the grade children out there at the games, even if we get a few dollars to interfere with the game. Smaller children get too excited for their own good when it gets late and they are tired. Escanaba doesn't need more gate receipts. But Escanaba and all communities soon are going to have to answer the question: Shall the school activities be centered around the interests of the players and school children or the adult spectators? Or for what purpose are parents and elders?

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington.—You can understand why folks get cynical about good government when you watch the parade of little income-tax evaders who are hauled to court every week, while certain big boys get their cases postponed interminably.

For instance, it has now been one year since this column—Oct. 19, 1948—first reported the shameful manner in which two road contractors living under the nose of Washington officials, had cheated their government in building the network of macadam roads which wind around the largest building in the world—the Pentagon.

The two contractors, W. J. "Doc" Hardy and F. McKenzie Davison had been caught by treasury agents quick-changing Uncle Sam out of $500,000 by all sorts of devious tricks. Among other things they made out checks to two other contractors, W. W. Thomas and S. M. Redd, who later gave T-men affidavits that they never received the checks. Instead Hardy and Davison forged the endorsements, cashed the checks, and deducted this as expense.

However, when the treasury and justice departments finally caught up with them, the two Virginia asphalt kings appealed to powerful Senator Harry Byrd, plus other Virginia politicians. A series of conferences followed. The justice department listened patiently, but stood pat.

Last July the income-tax case of the two men who gyped their government on war contract taxes was sent to U. S. District Attorney George Humbrickhouse in Richmond for criminal prosecution.

This writer, querying Humbrickhouse in July, was told there would be no delay in prosecuting the Hardy-Davison case. It would come before the first grand jury in the autumn.

But when Mr. Humbrickhouse was queried this week, he was evasive. The autumn grand jury had been in session for some time, but he said he had no immediate plans for presenting the case. In July he had said he was quite familiar with the case. But on Oct. 17, he talked as if it was something he had never heard of and devoutly hoped would be forgotten.

Note—Mr. Humbrickhouse was appointed to his key job as district attorney through the powerful Byrd machine of Virginia.

TRUMAN ON FARM BILL

President Truman hasn't given up on the Brannan farm program, despite the kicking around it received from congress. It will definitely be the farm plank of the Democratic party's 1950 campaign, Truman recently assured National Farmers Union boss Jim Patton.

"The current battle over farm legislation has had at least one good effect," the president told Patton. "It has served to smoke the boys out into the open. We know how they all stand, including some we expected to support us."

The president named no names, but obviously referred to Senator Clinton Anderson of New Mexico and Senate Majority Leader Scott Lucas of Illinois. The latter, though keeping out of the headlines, helped to lead the fight against the Brannan income-subsidy program in the senate.

"I think it's time we took the whole Fair Deal program once more to the people—not only the Brannan farm program and the nomination of Federal Power Commissioner Leland Olds, but everything else congress has scuttled," advised Patton. "After all, it's the people themselves who have been victimized by this 'skulduggery.'"

Truman agreed.

"The combination that fought the Olds nomination was about the toughest lobby I've ever seen," he remarked. "You're absolutely right. We've got to take it on and I have every intention of doing so."

CANADIAN GOUGE

While prices of most British and Canadian goods have come down as a result of the pound's devaluation, the Canadian newspaper companies which usually operate as a cabal, have flatly decided not to reduce prices to American newspapers.

This means that the highest newspaper contract prices in history will continue. It also means that the profits of Canadian newspaper companies will continue at their highest peak, while American newspaper profits are off considerably. Between 1945 and 1948 for instance, Canadian newspaper prices zoomed from $58.50 a ton to $100 per ton, with profits almost trebling.

Profits of such big companies as Abitibi shot from $10,101,512 in 1945 to $25,237,584 in 1948, while Consolidated's profits increased from $10,539,451 to $25,116,345.

Meanwhile the operating profits of a typical cross section of American newspapers dropped 54 per cent.

The interesting fact is that when the shoe was on the other foot, the Canadians immediately put it on. In 1946 when the American dollar was pegged at $1.10 as against $1.00 for the Canadian dollar, the same newspaper companies jumped their prices by exactly ten per cent. But now that the exchange has been reversed, they refuse to drop their prices proportionately.

Note—Of course it was the newspapers which yelled loudest for the end of Chester Bowles' OPA and the price controls which kept newspaper at its low 1945 price. However, it's the small papers representing the backbone of a free press which get hit hardest in the present price gouge.

Lombardo Still Making Dough

Band Leader Caters To His Customers

By ROBERT C. RUARK
New York—We paid a call on Mr. Guy Lombardo the other night, in his accustomed spot at the Roosevelt hotel — the first since 1931, when he was playing a set of dances at an educational emporium I frequented. We found him and his music largely unchanged, which makes some sort of argument of a political or ideological nature, I dunno which.

Mr. Lombardo has grossed something between 25 and 30 millions since 1924, playing a type of music that has earned him nothing but sneers from the esoteric members of his craft, and nothing but money from the vast cross-section of America which worships him as the high priest of dance music.

The worship has never let up, despite catcalls of "corn" and the interminable jokes about him and his brothers. Lombardo has kept an eye sharply on a middle stratum of audience, and saw a steady succession of frantically popular musicians go bust.

Watches Customers
Lombardo still watches his customers as closely as a football scout looks over a rival club. Through his observation of the hoppers and the leapers and the jiggers and arm jiggers and swoopers, he can tell to a thousandth of a beat whether or not his band is still providing the great middle class with what it desires for festivity.

About the only people who get fired from Lombardo's band are arrangers. If, come down with the desire to emulate Artie Shaw, an arranger suddenly starts tricking up the music, out he goes. The band members, otherwise, seem content. Eight of his crew have been with him 25 years. The orchestra is a three-way partnership between Guy and his brothers Lebert and Carmen, but the musicians average from $15 to $20,000 a year.

Carmen, who used to handle most of the vocals, is the only member who ever got real sensitive about being kidded. For years burlesquers of his quavery singing style aped him by allowing themselves to be shaken violently by two other singers, thereby achieving Carmen's quivery tones. He sings seldom, now, and confines himself largely to the flute.

Lombardo's scheme has been pretty simple, over the years. He recognized early that the majority of Americans, apart from youngsters and specialists, are non-experts on a dance floor. He has therefore attempted to please a vast segment of dancers who are confused and embarrassed by a straight jolt of jive; a too-torturous rumba; an over-vehement polka or an unleavened helping of be-bop, tango or waltz.

It is possible to do a technical rumba to Lombardo's rumba; it is also possible to perform the fox-trot or the waltz to the same tune. In watching the crowded floor the other night, I never say anybody leave it until the complete set had been finished. This is impossible in most places, since it would take a Fred Astaire to work through a complete serving of hot jazz, rumba, samba and the other stuff that is peddled piecemeal in the average city night club.

The people at the jammed tables had the kind of faces you see in painting by Thomas Benton and Grant Wood. For the most part they seemed eager and happy and reasonably prosperous. They would, at home, form the backbone of the community. They seemed to be enjoying themselves in a modified sort of way, doing modified steps to modified tunes.

Most of the audience seemed to consider Lombardo as a special friend. He signed a steady flow of menus as he sat at his table. Nice old ladies and nice young ladies and sedate gentlemen stopped by to say hello and pat his shoulder. Lombardo beamed at all. He seemed happy to be there, too.

This happiness with the help and with the customers, while unpleasing to the longhairs and the faddists, has reaped a great many things for the Canadian. He has such sidelines as a $200,000 restaurant; an interest in an airline; heavy oil holdings; a music publishing outfit and a recording and transcription business to keep him in the expensive speedboats he fancies.

There is some sort of sermon in the man, somewhere. The prolonged success may be due to the fact that he plays all requests for anniversaries and birthdays.

Today's Recipes

Here are two recipes for home-made mustard received from Mrs. Delima Charles of 206 Michigan avenue, Gladstone:

English Mustard

Mix one-fourth cup dry mustard gradually with cold water to the consistency of thick cream. Stir well to break up all lumps. Allow to stand ten minutes to flavor. Mix daily as wanted. Do not add fresh mustard to old.

French Mustard

Blend two parts of dry mustard to one part of granulated sugar. Stir in just enough diluted vinegar to make the consistency of a cream sauce.

Mrs. Arthur Sodermark, Bark River Route One also sends her favorite recipe, and suggests, that with the deer hunting season not too far away, that it be kept handy as it is delicious with venison.

Mustard

Two teaspoons dry mustard
One teaspoon sugar
One-half teaspoon salt
Four teaspoons flour
Dilute water and vinegar, half and half and mix with dry ingredients to form a paste. If desired stronger add more dry mustard to taste.

Powers

Doubek-Fazer

Powers — Miss Avis Doubek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Doubek of Menominee and Raymond Fazer of Powers, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Fazer, were married at a solemn nuptial high mass at St. Williams church in Menominee. Rev. Robert J. Monroe read the marriage service and celebrated the mass, assisted by Rev. Joseph Schaub of Menominee and Rev. Frank Ignatz of Menominee township.

The bride's gown of ivory satin of classically simple lines was styled with a heart-shaped neckline outlined with pearl embroidery, long close-fitting sleeves and a full skirt with a court train. Her triple fingertip veil was held by a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book to the cover of which was attached a white orchid.

Miss Phyllis Rotter of Peoria was maid of honor and Miss Bernadette Fazer, the bridegroom's sister and Miss Fern Doubek, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of ice blue satin, heart shaped open crown bonnets of satin and carried colonial nosegays of yellow and white pompons. Mary Ann Harrington, the flower girl, wore a floor length frock of delicate pink satin with a matching satin bonnet and she carried a tiny nosegay of pink and white flowers.

Louis Fazer was best man for his brother, and groomsmen were John Fazer, Jr., and Richard Doubek. Bernard Leboeuf and James St. Laurent ushered.

Miss Elaine Kass played the processional and recessional and Miss Dorothy Clausen and Miss Beatrice Braun were soloists of the mass.

Mrs. Doubek wore a wine crepe dress with black accessories and Mrs. Fazer a grey suit with black accessories. Both had corsages of yellow and white flowers.

A wedding dinner for family members was served at the Silver Dome followed by a reception. The newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Florida the bride for traveling wearing a wine gabardine suit. They will live in Powers.

And More Baughs Coming!

HERE'S THE PITCH—Sammy Baugh gives instructions to his sons, Todd, left, eight, and Davey, six. The youngsters saw their famous father in action for the first time, defeating the New York Bulldogs at Griffith Stadium with four touchdown passes, 38-14. Lest the Washington Redskins worry about future passers, there are two more little Baughs back home at Sweetwater, Tex.

Players Come And Go, But Baugh Goes On Forever

Washington, Oct. 21 (AP)—It was on Sept. 9, 1937, that Sam Baugh, a gangling guy from Texas, reported for his first practice with the Washington pro football Redskins.

Just to show you how long ago that was, athletically speaking, let's look at a few of the sports headlines of that week:

Charley Gehring and Ducky Medwick were the leading hitters of the American and National baseball leagues.

At Forest Hills, the tennis talk

Fullerton's Sports Fables

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

New York, Oct. 21 (AP)—Joe Pavlikowski, who plays "defensive" safety man on Hughie Devore's St. Bonaventure football team, has returned four pass interceptions a total of 213 yards this season . . . he ran one back 99 yards against Dayton and another an even 100 yards against Canisius . . . and Darrell Royal, Oklahoma quarterback, has intercepted 16 passes during his college career . . . no wonder a cagey coach like Rip Engle says he'd swap two pass completions for one interception.

George Krehbiel of Detroit, one of the few racing writers who can afford to own horses too, showed up in the press box recently wearing brand new glasses . . . someone told George he looked very well in cheaters . . . Krehbiel mugged a bit as he replied: "When I was being fitted with glasses, I told the optician I thought I would get through life without needing them . . . and what do you think the dirty bum said to me?—you dang near did it."

Madison Square Garden is asking something like $75,000 for hockey television rights this season and $100,000 for basketball . . . and the TV folks are very reluctant to shell out unless they can find someone to pick up the tab . . . promoters of the Richmond Tobacco bowl festival want to get William and Mary and the U. of Virginia together for their game next fall. It probably would require an act of congress . . . Lorne Chabot, Jr., 20-year-old rookie goalie of the Tulsa hockey Oilers, has his sights set on the Vezina trophy, which his dad won twice.

Jack Dempsey, now in the business of producing sports movies, hopes to do the story of Joe DiMaggio next. "It will be the biggest thing ever done by Dempsey or anyone else," says Jack . . . the University of Miami drew 78,492 customers for its first two home football games this season. That's more than any Miami team ever attracted in a full season up to 1938 . . . Lehigh U. students, rejoicing in the nickname, "Engineers," once tried to construct a mechanical man as a mascot. If they had succeeded, Bill Leckonby likely would have him playing tackle.

Eskymos Stress Pass Defense For Marinette Tilt Tomorrow

Strem Star Hurler For Marine 11

With one eye cocked on six-foot four-inch Jim Strem, Marinette's triple-threat quarterback and passing star, and the other on Don Miller, the half who got off a 105-yard touchdown run in Marinette's 38-14 winover Watertown last week, the Escanaba Eskymos stressed defense, particularly against an expected aerial onslaught, in preparation for the Marine engagement tomorrow night.

The game will be played at LaCuman field in Marinette and will get underway at 8:15 Escanaba time. Marinette home games ordinarily start at 9 o'clock Escanaba time, but this game was moved up to 8:15 to accommodate Escanaba players and fans in the time difference.

The reserves will clash with the Marinette reserves at 3:30 tomorrow afternoon.

Marinette has won six in a row this season without defeat, most of them by topheavy scores, and is consequently rated one of the top teams in Wisconsin.

Much of the credit for this performance—although the Marines have a well-balanced team throughout—is due to Quarterback Strem, who flings the ball 40 and 50 yards with the dexterity and accuracy of a Sid Luckman, who punts as far and as accurately and who is rated a far-better-than-average field general.

Against Watertown, he completed 17, 33 and 40 yard touchdown passes and saw a mate drop a 50-yard pass right in his mitts on the five-yard line.

Thus, you see why the Eskymos stress pass defense this week. And at the same time, they brushed up on pass offense with Buddy Weber hurling and polishing up their rushing attack.

The plucky Eskymo quarterback who played a bangup game against Iron Mountain, repeatedly getting down to make the tackle on his own punts and kickoffs, has an injured rib which will require a special pad but he will run the team offensively and perform the kicking off, punting and passing.

X-rays showed no fracture, but it was a painful rib injury that Weber sustained when he laid a hard block-tackle into Eugene Taglienti last Saturday.

Escanaba's likely starting backfield will be Weber, Dick Danielson at left half, Jerry Bink at fullback and Pat Farrell at right half, with Bob Paternick, Bill Hamm, Jon Baldwin and Warren Johnston ready to spell them off.

Al Nelson, tackle, and Jim Chapek, ace senior guard, will be hampered by a hoi and pulled hip muscle, respectively, but both will see action. Others making the jaunt are Dick Shomin, Axel Anderson, Tom Schwalbach, Jim Prokos, ends; Jim Nyquist, Bob Richards, Bob Frazier, tackles; Bob St. Martin, Tom Way, George Rouman, guards; Tom Nault, Dick and Fred Johnson, centers, and Jack Cloutier, tackle, and Vern McCarthy, fullback.

Of this group of 25 making the trip, 17 are seniors. All are seniors above except Shomin, Schwalbach, Nyquist, Dick Johnson, Bink, Paternick, Warren Johnston and St. Martin.

Marinette is the favorite, but the Eskymos, who trounced Marinette, 27-14, last season, have an eleven well versed in fundamentals that is improving steadily. Likewise, they have plenty of pluck and spirit and an upset is not unlikely.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

Philadelphia—Lew Jenkins, 139½, Philadelphia, outpointed Ike Jenkins, 131½, New York, 8-0.

New York Sunnyside Gardens—Andy DePaul, 156½, Clifside Park, N. Y., outpointed Carmine Vitale, 160½, New York, 8-0.

NARROW ESCAPE

Cleveland (AP)—After the Cleveland Browns escaped from Baltimore with a last-quarter 28-20 All-America Conference win over the Colts, Otto Graham, their T formation quarterback genius, relaxed by piloting the plane for an hour or so on the return trip. The players began to grumble that one narrow escape was enough for one day until Graham explained he was a flyer during the war.

BACK TO THE DRILL

Chicago (AP)—Ray Kuffel, one of the staunchest defensive ends in the All-America Conference, has handed in his pads to return to Marquette university where he is studying dentistry. The Chicago Hornets released him because they recently picked up Paul Cleary, 1947 All-American at Southern California, and because Kuffel wouldn't be able to practice with the club and attend classes.

KOCESKI OUT

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 21 (AP)—Leo Koceski, regular right halfback of the University of Michigan football team, will be out of action "at least three weeks" with four fractured ribs.

ESCANABA DAILY PRESS SPORTS

"It Seems To Me"

BY JIM WARD

What a day! Dark, murky, overcast sky, high humidity, condensation on the windows—and the fog horn blasting in Swami's ears now as he contemplates the Saturday forecast.

The de-humidifier alone can't handle this job! This calls for our foggeradiator, a special device built on the order of a Buck Rogers disintegrator, which works on the delayed action principle. The shell bursts in midair and clears up the ozone long enough for Swami to get in his Hicks.

This eradicator is a Swami invention, an exclusive, with patent pending!

Ah, there it is—the crystal-clear crystal ball says—

Iron Mountain 13, Iron River 7—Lajeunesse said Iron Mountain lacked spirit until the Escanaba game. The Mountaineers pointed for that one and won 20-14. The momentum will remain for a one-touchdown win over Iron River.

Crystal Falls 19, Niagara 6—It will be a happy day for Niagara when it hangs up the moleskins this season. That's a rough way to get into the Menominee Range conference.

Wakefield 33, Hancock 13—The Wakes aren't expecting any more difficulty with Hancock than they had with Ontonagon last week.

Ashland 13, Bessemer 0—Ashland was crowded out by Ironwood in a Michigan-Wisconsin conference melee two weeks ago, but it has power enough for a two-TD win over Bessemer.

Newberry 26, Soo, Ont. 0—One of the easiest of the week to call. The game will be played in Newberry. It could be more than 26.

Ontonagon 19, Lake Linden 6—We recall overrating Ontonagon just a trifle in one game this fall (Hancock over Ontonagon, 13-12, remember?) This could be a bit high, but the crystal ball says 19-6.

L'Anse 20, Houghton 0—The Gremlins would just as soon point for that Hancock game next week. L'Anse is a three-touchdown favorite.

Gladstone 20, Stephenson 7—This isn't quite as important a win as that 13-6 win over Stephenson last year for Cappy Keil's 100th Gladstone football triumph, but it is one the Braves aren't going to pass up. The Eagles have improved considerably since the start of the season, but it's Gladstone by two touchdowns.

Munising 19, St. Joseph's 6—Two years ago, Coach Bob Villeneuve's Mustangs ran roughshod over a St. Joe team that was supposed to give them a battle. Munising will cop the Little Brown Jug again this year but not without a fight.

Marinette 20, Escanaba 7—A fast charging Escanaba line might be able to slow up Jim Strem some, just as it slowed up Dick Shaky's passing and Johnny Moerchen's running in the Menominee game. But watch that open field threat—punt and kickoff returns. Marinette backs are tricky. A break here or there and Escanaba could upset the Marines but on the basis of the latter's past performance, they're picked to win by 20-7.

Scribe Likes Minnesota, Army, Kentucky, Pitt

New York, Oct. 21 (AP) — Here are the results of another session behind the crystal football.

Army over Columbia: Columbia is the only team to have beaten Army since the days of Blanche, Davis & Co. That upset came two years ago, 21 to 20. Army has personally advised Coach Lou Little that "It is ready this time." It could be a massacre but probably won't.

Kentucky over Southern Methodist: Perhaps Doak Walker's illness will inspire the other SMU players to do better but there is nothing like having a healthy All-America player in your backfield. Kentucky is the nation's leading offensive and defensive club among the majors.

Minnesota gets Michigan: If Michigan gets its passing attack functioning, this could very easily go the other way. But with Minnesota this close to the Rose Bowl, why should the Gophers falter?

North Carolina over LSU: The LSU backfield lineup hasn't jelled. It will take time work to subdue Charlie Justice and his mates.

Pittsburgh over Indiana: Pitt has a winning streak and the Hoosiers have lost all four this season. Neither string will be broken Saturday.

California over Washington: The Huskies are trying out an all-sophomore backfield in the middle of the season. That's too late.

Texas over Rice: Texas injury list is supposedly a mile long, with only one able bodied fullback available. But the Longhorns are the pick in a squeaker.

Cornell over Princeton: Cornell's one-two punch of Lynn Dorset and Hillary Ghollett probably as good as anything in the East. Princeton's attack is basically sophomores.

Oklahoma over Nebraska: Nebraska is rated on a par with Kansas and last week the all-winning Oklahomans trounced Kansas by three touchdowns.

USC over Oregon: This could be the Trojans' second straight defeat because Oregon has been waiting for this game since the 3 to 7 affair a year ago.

Alabama over Mississippi State: Two one-time greats meeting in mid-season with only one major triumph between them. Alabama has the stronger offense.

Baylor over Texas A & M: Baylor to continue among the nation's dwindling list of unbeaten teams.

Skipping over the others in a hurry:

East: Boston University over New York University, Colgate over Rutgers, Dartmouth over Harvard, Penn over Navy, Yale over Holy Cross, Syracuse over Fordham, Villanova over Duquesne.

South: Georgia Tech over Florida, Duke over Virginia Tech, Tennessee over Tennessee Tech, Tulane over Auburn, Vanderbilt over Arkansas.

Midwest: Michigan State over Penn State, Illinois over Purdue, Iowa over Northwestern, Ohio State over Wisconsin.

Southwest and Far West: UCLA over Washington State, Texas Christian over Mississippi, Stanford over Oregon State.

BIERMAN COACH OF WEEK—Minnesota football co-captains Howie Bierman (left) and Clayton Tommemaker talk to head coach Bernie Bierman during a practice session on the Minneapolis campus. Bierman was named "Coach of Week" by the United Press after his squad trounced Ohio State last Saturday, 27-0, to become favored to win the Big Ten title and go to the Rose Bowl. The Gophers meet Michigan this Saturday in another important test. (NEA Telephoto)

Pity Farrer; He Must Face Leo Nomellini!!

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 21 (AP)—If you've got one drop of the milk of human kindness in you, you'll shed a tear for Dick Farrer, 195-pound Michigan center.

Physically, he's a good man by normal standards. But for the assignment he undertakes tomorrow as Michigan faces Minnesota, he'd be better off with a stone head.

The six foot junior from Trenton, Mich., will probably carry his extremely limited playing experience right into the center of the Michigan line—opposite Leo Nomellini.

Minnesota Has Much At Stake

New York, Oct. 21 (AP)—Notre Dame, now accepted almost unanimously as the most awesome aggregation in college football, takes it easy this weekend while such powers as Army, Minnesota and Oklahoma attempt to prove that they aren't exactly second-raters, either.

Having disposed of previously unbeaten Tulane in a manner that offered no comfort to its future opponents, Notre Dame now enjoys an open date in a long-winded schedule that reaches into December.

All of which means the other members of the nation's top ten in the Associated Press poll have no hope of seeing the Irish pushed out of the No. 1 spot. But the rest of the list may undergo alterations.

In the greatest apparent danger tomorrow are Minnesota, the team ranked right behind Notre Dame and Army; seventh-place Kentucky, and Rice and Texas, respective owners of berths nine and ten.

With Rice and Texas playing each other at Austin, the loser is virtually a cinch to slide out of the top ten. Each has been beaten once.

Minnesota catches a Michigan team that has been humiliated two weeks running and will be in no mood to respect the Gophers' perfect record of four impressive tributes. They play at Ann Arbor.

Kentucky is in the same category. Having yielded only one touchdown in chalking up five lop-sided victories, the Wildcats invade Southern Methodist, the team which Rice bootied unceremoniously from the unbeaten ranks last week.

Penn State, MSC Set For Grudge Go

East Lansing, Oct. 21 (AP)—After a week of worrying about replacing their cripples, Michigan State and Penn State were set today for their grudge football fight on Saturday.

Biggie Munn has rehearsed his passing attack around Dorow, who got first call for the job just last Monday. If Dorow makes good he will rate as a five-day wonder since he's had just that many days to become acquainted with the intricate job of ball-handling, spinning, faking, signaling and blocking the post requires.

Penn State also has its troubles in the backfield. Fran Ruge, the great fullback for the Nittany Lions reportedly will be sidelined by an ankle injury although he will be on hand with the team. Chuck Drzenowitch, the first string quarterback, also has ankle trouble and will see only partial service, the Lions report.

The visitors are rated as slight underdogs.

Athlete Play For Money?
Oh, Horrors, Says Ruark

By ROBERT C. RUARK
New York—Mr. Joseph Louis, the retired pugilist, said a horrid, horrid thing the other day. Some reporters were asking him if he had scheduled a flock of exhibitions to receive interest in the grand, grand game of boxing and Mr. Louis seemed irritated.

"No," he said shortly. "I am not fighting exhibitions to receive interest in boxing. There is money in exhibitions. I am fighting exhibitions for money."

This is a terrible admission for any athlete to make. It is well known that money is of little or no interest to sport, even professional sport. All the athletes I

Old Field Too Close To New Hospital

Manistique, Oct. 21 — Emery Barnes and John Wood, representing the Manistique Cardinal baseball team, and H. W. Heideman, city manager, are casting about for some suitable location to serve as a baseball grounds for next year.

Because of the present ball park's proximity to the new Schoolcraft Memorial hospital the ball park will not be available next year.

A number of sites have been under consideration, the city manager states, but all have one or more shortcomings that have caused their rejection.

Land adjacent to the quarry pool could not be used because of the traffic hazard it would create. The lakeshore park lot was checked over, but the soil there is unsuited for baseball park sodding and the breeze from the lake is cited as another objection. Several other lots, city owned and available were turned down because of their closeness to residences.

"Manistique will have a ball park next year. I can assure you that," said Heideman, but he added that the recent experience of spending money on a field and then having to vacate it again in a couple of years will not be repeated.

'Stique Reserves Meet Marquette On Home Grounds

Manistique, Oct. 21—Football, perhaps lacking a bit in finesse but more than making up for that deficiency in the determination in which they play will be served local fans at the high school stadium this evening. The Manistique Reserves meet the Marquette Reserves in the final game of the season.

Coach Robert Hussey, in charge of the local group, has shaped up a team that promises much for next year's varsity team. Among them is Francis Ekdahl, who is so good as a passer that Coach John Vieregger has borrowed him for tonight's varsity game at Marquette. Most of the boys are a bit light at present, but in a year's time should make the grade.

The game will begin at 8:15 o'clock. The band will be on the job to pep things up.

The probable lineup for Manistique is: George Bouschor and Jim Jackson, ends; Bob Nelson and Neely Schuener, tackles; Bob White and Frank Dougherty, guards; Bill Dyers, center; Skip Cummings, Whitey Wilson, George Hough and Keith Jenkins, backs.

Braves Play Home
Finale Saturday
Against Eagles

Gladstone, Oct. 21—Injuries have forced Coach Don Plotenhauer to make a number of changes in the lineup of the Gladstone Braves for their last home game of the season against Stephenson here tomorrow at Marble Athletic Field.

The local mentor listed Capt. Buddy Clark, right halfback, Dick Stade, the team's field general, Larry LaPlante, left halfback, and Bill Beveridge, veteran tackle, as being handicapped by injuries.

Jim Schram, who has been playing a fine game at right end, will see action at right halfback with Richard Swenson playing at end. Pierre Leveille probably will be calling signals and Les Young and Jim LaLonde will see plenty of action in the backfield, Coach Plotenhauer indicates.

If Beveridge is sidelined, Stanley Jugo will go to the offensive tackle spot and his pivot post will be played by Sidbeck.

Otherwise the rest of the squad is in good condition and mentally the entire team is right for the game. Spirit is very good, the local mentor declares.

Fourteen members of the squad will be making their last home appearance as representatives of Gladstone high school. They are Capt. Clark, Dick Stade, Larry LaPlante, Ralph McGarry, Don Pado, Jim Schram, Bill Beveridge, Marvin Jandro, Stanley Jugo, Henry DeMay, Richard Swenson, Harold Froberg, Les Young and Clarence King.

There will be a preliminary between the reserve elevens of the two schools.

Ford Frick Opposed To Unified Control Of Major Umpires

New York, Oct. 21 (AP)—President Ford Frick of the National league declared today he would be "unalterably opposed" to placing the umpiring staffs of the two major baseball leagues under the authority of Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler.

There have been seemingly inspired reports since the world series that the baseball commissioner means to introduce such a measure at the winter meetings here in December.

Under the purported plan, the arbiters of both leagues would be hired, fired and administered entirely from Chandler's office at Cincinnati.

The boys in blue, one informed source suggested, might even be made interchangeable between the leagues—working National and American league games impartially. In other words, one big, happy pool of umpires.

"Sure, I've read about it and I've heard it discussed," Frick said, "but that's all I know. Nothing has been said to me by the commissioner."

"If and when it does come up, my answer will be the same, that I am unalterably opposed to the idea. I would see it as the first breaking down of competition between the leagues, and competition has been the foundation of the game."

Gavilan, chief challenger for Sugar Ray Robinson's welterweight title, rules a 3 to 1 favorite.

Federal Judge Sentences Reds

John F. X. McGohey, each defendant, was sentenced to 10 years imprisonment. He made no recommendation for a fine although the law provides it.

This suggestion to federal Judge Harold Medina came one week after the top leaders of the American Communist party were convicted of conspiracy to teach the forcible overthrow of the United States government.

McGohey's recommendation followed old provisions of the Smith Act under which the defendants were indicted. Last year the act was revised making maximum punishment five years and keeping the fine at $10,000.

The defendants, the elite of the Communist organization in the U. S., were convicted of conspiring to advocate the violent overthrow of the U. S. government in violation of the nine-year-old Smith act.

They were the first communists ever brought to trial under the act. Their conviction beheaded the party. There was speculation as to whether the verdict outlawed the party.

Yesterday, however, Attorney General J. Howard McGrath said in Washington that the verdict "did not outlaw the party."

The defendants had their say in court. The trial consumed 39 weeks. The testimony ran to more than 5,000,000 words spread across 20,000 pages of the court record.

Cost Over $1,000,000
The government spent $1,000,000 or more. The defense bill was about half as much. It was perhaps the longest federal criminal trial in history.

With the trial at an end, the five defense attorneys preceded their clients to judgment. Judge Medina sentenced the lawyers to terms varying from 30 days to six months for contemptuous conduct during the trial. Their sentences begin Nov. 15 but also are being appealed.

The lawyers are Abraham J. Isersman of Newark, N. J.; Harry Sacher, of New York; Richard Gladstein, of San Francisco; George W. Crockett, Jr., a Detroit Negro; and Louis McCabe, of Philadelphia.

Dennis also drew six months for his courtroom antics as his own attorney.

He is the party's number one man in America since illness forced National Chairman William Z. Foster into a less active role. Foster was indicted with the others, but he has not been tried because of his health.

Three defendants, Hall, Winston and Green, have been in jail for weeks under contempt sentences imposed during the trial. Two others, Winter and Gies, served 30 days during the trial on similar charges. The defendants were indicted in July, 1948, in the first federal test of the government's control over admitted Communists.

During the war the Communist party was dissolved for a time. But it came to life again in 1945. The government charged it was recreated on a prewar pattern of violence.

Britain To Cut Military Funds

Steps Taken To Ease Economic Pinch

London, Oct. 21 (AP)—Four U. S. Senators said today foreign secretary Ernest Bevin had given them the impression that Britain will make large cuts in military appropriations in an effort to ease her economic problems.

"We are vitally concerned, of course, because of Britain's role in overall plans for defense of western Europe," Senator Allen J. Ellender (D-La.) told a news conference. Britain and France are major keystone around which western European defense plans are being built.

Ellender is chairman of an appropriations subcommittee investigating European defense and the accomplishments of American aid abroad. Committee members talked with Bevin yesterday.

Ellender's colleagues, Senators Homer Ferguson (R-Mich.), William E. Jenner (R-Ind.) and Theodore Francis Green (D-R.I.), said they also received the impression there will be substantial cuts in Britain's defense expenditures.

The Senators said they were concerned about what part Spain may play in broad defense strategy. They are scheduled to see Generalissimo Franco after they reach Madrid Oct. 25.

Hemans' Lawyers Ask For Dismissal Of Bribe Charges

Lansing, Oct. 21 (AP)—Attorneys for Charles F. Hemans, former chief witness of the state Grand jury, today moved for dismissal of a bribery charge against him.

Benjamin F. Watson, Lansing attorney, argued that Judge Louis E. Coash, former one-man grand juror, had no legal authority and that since the warrant was served on Hemans a week after the one-man grand jury law went out of existence, it was void.

Meanwhile Kim Sigler, former grand jury special prosecutor and later governor, commented in the background that he had intended to give Hemans immunity on the charge now facing him.

Though he would not directly criticize the present proceedings, Sigler said that in 1944 when Hemans made the first admission that he had attempted to bribe former Representative George O. Hanna of Atlantic Mine, the grand jury had intended to give him immunity.

Sigler added that he was forced to resign as special prosecutor before he could give Hemans the blanket immunity he had intended.

CAB Schedules Air Controversy Hearing For Tuesday, Nov. 1

Washington, Oct. 21, (Special to the Escanaba Daily Press)—CAB today set November 1 for the prehearing conference in Washington on application of National Airlines on a routing between Detroit and Hancock, Houghton, stopping at Lansing, Grand Rapids, Green Bay, Wisconsin, Menominee, Marquette, Escanaba and Iron Mountain.

The congressmen flatly stated CAB had sidestepped the real issue "of which company could best service the Upper Peninsula and most economically."

From taxpayers viewpoint Wisconsin-Central record is bad, it is alleged. For 12 months ending June 30, 1949 the annual air mail subsidy was $884,000 out of total $1,084,000 revenue. Meanwhile Nationwide has given service to the area and is operating on an economically sound basis without government subsidy.

Gas Station Money Stolen At Hermansville
Between $43 and $50 is missing today from the Avette service station at Hermansville, apparently taken last night by a motorist who waited in the station while his car was being serviced. Gladstone state police reported.

Officers today were on the lookout for a 1941 large green automobile, whose driver halted at the station at 9:20 o'clock last night.

The Ayottes told officers that the motorist asked to have the oil checked in his car. The woman attendant said she did not know how it was done and the man told her that the woman sitting outside in the car would show her. The motorist remained in the service station.

When the car had driven away the woman attendant discovered that all of the bills had been taken from the station's cash box.
